

LANDMARK

FOOD & WINE MAGAZINE Wine Guide 2012

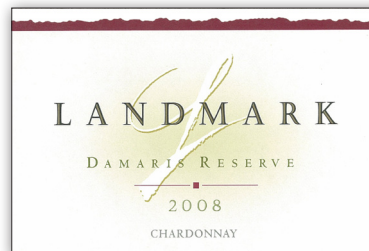

LANDMARK VINEYARDS

In the past decade, this Sonoma winery has introduced a series of small-lot wines from high-profile vineyards. These wines have joined other well-known bottlings in Landmark's portfolio, such as the Overlook Chardonnay and Grand Detour Pinot Noir. Founded in the Sonoma Valley in 1974 and known primarily for Burgundian varietals Landmark has expanded into Rhone varietals.

2009 Overlook Chardonnay

Elegant pear and toasty oak are balanced by lemony acidity.

2009 Damaris Chardonnay

This satiny Chardonnay comes from the acclaimed Flocchini and Sangiacaomo vineyards.