

LANDMARK

San Francisco Chronicle

Chronicle Wine Selections by Jon Bonné
September 11, 2011

2009 Kanzler Pinot Noir

2009 Landmark Kanzler Vineyard Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir ($65, 14.9%): This Kenwood property typically has more Rhône on the brain, but its foray into Pinot is a deft example of the deeply extracted style. Heady, spicy (about 20 percent of the grapes were left in whole clusters) and painted on a big canvas, with plush brandied cherry fruit, and an appealing forest-floor accent that adds intrigue.